

Cavaplan Vaccination Law

Anonemis Research
Simenona Martínez
AnonemisResearch.com

We should just start vaccinating birds and bats. We should also be testing them for future vaccinations.

Coronaviruses are found in a diverse array of bat and bird species, which are believed to act as natural hosts. Molecular clock dating analyses of coronaviruses suggest that the most recent common ancestor of these viruses existed around 10,000 years ago.

www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov › articles › P..

A Case for the Ancient Origin of Coronaviruses